

A Season of Laughs

Cherokee Civic Theatre is an all-volunteer, non-profit organization whose mission is to provide a venue for local talent to produce live theatre for the entertainment of our community. Our goal is to educate both youth and adults in all aspects of the theatre and to encourage volunteers to learn and showcase their skills, both on and off stage.

We invite you to share this journey with us as we embark on our 51st season.

From renovations on our exterior (don't you just love the new marquee) to an amazing line up of entertainment, Cherokee Civic Theatre is poised to have another great season. All of which is made possible by you, our members and patrons. Without you, there is no us, and we could not be more thankful for you.

FEAR FACTORY

BY PAT COOK

Directed by Tony Williams

October 21 & 28 at 7:30 p.m.
October 22 & 29 at 2 p.m.

Frights for hire? Why not! Whether it's showing up as a SWAT team to frighten neighbors into turning off the loud music, scaring a 9-year-old into going to see the doctor or curing someone's hiccups, Annie's Fear Factory is ready to serve. She explains, "We are scared every day by the news, insurance ads, doctors' reports and so on. Wouldn't it be nice to be in control of the scare for a change?" Written by Pat Cook, this laff-riot is full of twists, fast dialog and, of course, a few funny scares.

THE RENTED CHRISTMAS

By J. Lillian Vandever

December 8 & 9 at 7:30 p.m.
December 10 at 2 p.m.

Directed by Amy McCalister

John Dale hasn't enjoyed a 'real Christmas' for years. So, on the spur of the moment, he decides to 'rent' a Christmas from Anne Weston, who owns the local rent shop. When the young actors come down with the measles and the guild can't find a 'mother', Anne turns to the orphanage and steps in to play the role herself. The story of how John Dale's rented Christmas turns into a new life for all concerned makes this a warm story for the holiday season.

Anne of Green Gables

By Jody Johnston Davidson

March 1 & 2 at 7:30 p.m.
March 3 at 2 p.m.

Directed by Marty Chute

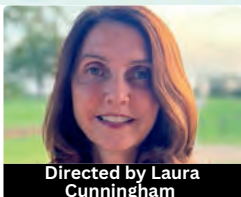

Share the adventures of Anne Shirley and her "best friend for life", Diana Barry, as they travel from childhood to maturity in this heartwarming adaptation beautifully captures the highlights of the classic novel. Delight in high spirited antics of the independent, red-headed, freckle faced girl, named Anne with an "e". Whether you already know and love Anne's story, or this is your first time discovering it, this sweet and sincere rendition of the classic novel will touch hearts.

Auditions: Jan. 6th & 8th

By Michael McKeever

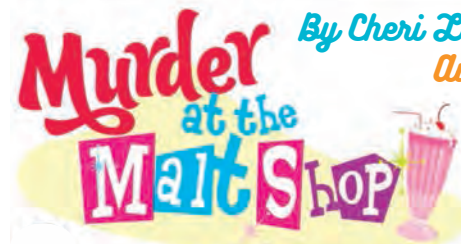

May 3, 4, 11 at 7:30 p.m.
May 12 at 2 p.m.

Directed by Laura Cunningham

It's 1942, and two of Hollywood's biggest divas have descended upon the luxurious Palm Beach Royale Hotel -- assistants, luggage and legendary feud with one another in tow. Everything seems to be in order for their wartime performance...that is, until they are somehow assigned to the same suite! This play is filled with mistaken identities, overblown egos, double entendres, and a lap dog named Mr. Boodles.
