

This season we begin with a musical showcase that will feature songs from hit animated movies you likely know and love! After this we will take a trip to the deep south to help the Turpin family plan a funeral. Next, we will travel to an orphanage in Depression-Era New York that's a hard knock life for it's residents. Then in 2027 we'll head back to the 80's with a fresh retelling of a classic fairytale filled with power ballads before taking a serious look at addiction and recovery.

To end the year we are back to another musical that takes place in a very special bookshop.

And of course, more events may pop up throughout the year so stay tuned!
